

Dear Governor Pataki:

I ride NYC subways and buses and I vote for better transit. A fare hike is a tax hike that would hurt the riders who can least afford it. I urge you to pledge no fare increase in 2003 and to commit yourself to fair and adequate funding for New York City's subways and buses.

Yours truly,

A RAW DEAL

- NYC transit riders pay 60% of the cost of their ride, far higher than the national average of 40%.
- NY State gives only 63% of its transit aid to the city, even though we make up 84% of state transit riders.
- Buses and subways are more crowded than ever, while service increases lag.
